Volume 69 No. 1

February 2026

“Be still, and know that I am God. I am exalted among the nations,
I am exalted in the earth. The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah” Psalm 46:10–11

In worship on January 4th, we participated in the spiritual practice of Star Words. Each person was given a word meant to serve as a guiding light for the year. Just as the magi followed the star to find the Messiah, our word is meant to lead us closer to Jesus.

My word for the year is Appreciation—and I appreciate this word because it is something I need to practice. Often, I jump from one fun thing to the next without taking time to appreciate the joy of the moment I’m in. I’m always ready for what comes next, rather than lingering where I am.

I also invited us to choose a word for the congregation—a word that would guide us in the year to come. As we worship and pray, learn and grow, and plan for the future, we will spend time with our congregational word. Our word for the year is Pause. Initially, pause felt strange to me—and maybe it does to you, too. Perhaps it feels as though the church has already been living in a pause as you transitioned from longtime pastors, to the interim, and now to me as your newly installed pastor. I wonder if you are ready to be done pausing and eager to move on to what comes next.

After worship on January 4th, I received a note from George Kofron that offered an acronym for our word Pause: Postpone Acting Until Spirit Engages. That framing feels exactly right. This year, we are invited to pause—not out of fear or uncertainty, but out of attentiveness. We will sit together, listen carefully, and look for the Spirit’s movement, going when and where she calls us forward.

When I was interviewed by the Pastor Nominating Committee back in June, one of the questions I was asked was, “What does your first year look like? What do you want to accomplish?” My answer may surprise you: my first year doesn’t look like accomplishments. I could have said that I want to grow the church, encourage giving, or start new programs—but I didn’t, and I don’t.

There is an old piece of wisdom often shared with pastors entering a new call: don’t change anything in the first year. With a few exceptions, I believe in that advice. In my first year, I don’t want to accomplish things—I want to get to know the church. I want to listen to who you are, both individually and communally. I want to pause with you.

One way I hope to live into this pause is through Meals with Molly and Michael. Over the next few years, I would love to share a meal with every person or family in the church. Given the size of the congregation, I expect this will take at least three years, but I am committed to sitting at the table and breaking bread. I believe the table is one of the best places to truly know one another. My hope is that you will invite Michael and me into your home, but I also understand that not everyone is comfortable hosting or able to do so. If that’s the case, let’s go out to eat instead. I will have dinner dates listed in the Triangle each month. This month we are available February 19 and February 25. Send me an email or call me to claim one of these dates. Please feel free to reach out about other times as well, including breakfast or lunch (though Michael may not always be available for those). I’ve already shared several of these meals, and they have been invaluable to my experience at Trinity.

In many of the Psalms, the word Selah appears often, though its exact meaning is unknown. Many believe it is a cue to pause—to let the words of prayer and praise settle into the soul and to listen for God’s response.

May this year be, for us, a holy pause as we learn, listen, and attend to the Spirit’s gentle urging.

With Joy, Pastor Molly

Send a Little Love

On Sunday mornings, many of us are blessed to be able to greet and catch up with our friends and church family before and after worship. At Trinity, these connections are an important part of our faith community. There are several folks however who can't attend worship regularly -- or even at all -- making it hard for them to feel connected.

Beginning February 1, you can help change that! Each week, on a small table in the Narthex, you will find greeting cards with envelopes addressed to our homebound members. To help us out, we ask that you:

- choose an envelope/card from the table
- write a friendly note and sign it
- add a stamp and mail it

On February 1 and 8, the cards will be for Valentine's Day. Each week after that, we'll offer a variety of cards, some blank and some with special messages including birthday greetings.

Whether you can do this every week, once a month, or just now and then, you will be helping some very special Trinity friends know they are thought about and cared about. Thanks for your help with this!

Ushers Needed for the Trinity Team

Want to serve Trinity in some capacity but don't have a lot of time? The Usher Team might be a good fit for you!

Can you spare one Sunday every 4 to 6 weeks to help usher during worship from 8:30am to 11:00am? You see some of the tasks that the Ushers do when you come to worship. But there are others that you might not be aware of that make Worship run smoothly each Sunday.

Contact Mary McDowell for more information by calling her at 302-893-3040 or emailing her at mary.mcdowell7641@gmail.com.

Young Families Fellowship

The Young Families Ministry invites your family to a special Valentine's Day party on Saturday, February 14 from 11am to 1pm in the Fellowship Hall.

Wear your fanciest outfit or Valentine's attire and join us for games, crafts, and making Valentine cards. Food and drinks will be provided. This event is for children through fifth grade.

Please sign up in the lobby or email Sara Ross at saraross0819@gmail.com to RSVP.

Mission Possible Kids

On December 7, members of Trinity went Christmas shopping at Target for two families from Maple Lane Elementary School. Thanks to this effort, we were able to purchase gifts for three children. The school's social worker expressed deep gratitude to Trinity and was excited to call the families to let them know that their gifts had been delivered to the school.

Participating families had a wonderful time selecting gifts from the children's wish lists, making this a joyful and meaningful experience for everyone involved.

Cross+Generational Fellowship

On Sunday, January 4, about 30 members participated in a meaningful Cross+Generational activity centered on the Epiphany. We began by breaking into small groups to answer some icebreaker questions, then switched groups to give everyone a chance to sit and mingle with different people. During this time, participants heard the Epiphany story told from the perspective of one of the Magi.

After reflecting together on a few discussion questions, we switched groups once more to take part in a creative art activity. Some people worked on a paper-folding project to create star lanterns. Before folding their paper, they wrote their "star words" along with the names of people they wished to hold in prayer throughout the year. Others participated in a "Waters of Hope" activity, writing their fears on canvas and then used different shades of blue to make wavy lines around and through the words. This visual reminder showed how moving water will wash away or wear down our fears over time.

Youth Fellowship

On Friday, December 12, our middle and high school youth gathered to decorate Christmas cookies and enjoy Christmas-themed games together.

Everyone had fun being creative and sharing laughs. Some of the cookies were given to Trinity's Christmas Carolers to bring to homebound members and the rest went home with the youth!

Christmas Caroling

On Sunday, December 21 we spread holiday cheer by caroling to Trinity members who are either homebound or living in care communities. A total of 16 children and 11 adults participated in this annual event, visiting seven members, and sharing music, joy, and connection during the Christmas season.
